THE GREATEST DISCOVERY OF THE AGE!

For Incontrovertible Evidence of the Infallible Efficacy and unparalleled Utility of PROFESSOR WOOD'S WONDERFUL HAIR RESTORATIVE!

A Noble cure for the hair, which restores to young gentlemen again, so far as the hair of the head is concerned, the lost and wasted hair.
It will give the bald-headed, youthful looks, turn grey hair to its natural color, and removes all dandruff and disagreeable matter from the scalp.
It also invigorates the hair, makes it soft and glorious, as the ingredients act upon the roots of the same. It has been tested by scientific, as well as by men who stand high in public esteem, and has been pronounced satisfactory.

OVER 5,000 Bottles have been sold within the last twelve months, in the city of St. Louis and vicinity, alone, and over twice THAT NUMBER in the States of Ohio, Kentucky, Indiana and Illinois. Of the immense number of letters and certificates which are voluntarily sent every day to the Professor, he would select a few, and present them here to the public's attention.

STATE OF ILLINOIS,
CANEV, June 17, 1854.
I have used Prof. O. J. Wood's Hair Restorative, and have admired its wonderful effect.
My hair was becoming, as I thought, permanently grey, but by the use of his Restorative, it has resumed its original color, and I have no doubt permanently so.
SIDNEY BRUSE, Ex-Senator, U. S.

VINCENNES, Ind., June 15, 1853.
Prof. O. J. Wood—Dear Sir: As you are about to manufacture extensively and vend your recently discovered Hair Restorative, I will state, for your restorative upon my hair. I commenced its use when my hair was quite gray, and I soon became to see its effect in restoring the natural color to it; it immediately began to change to its natural color, until it is entirely restored, and from carefully watching its effects, I am satisfied that it is not only healthy in its effects, but that it fairly applied according to directions, no lady should be without it. I therefore cheerfully recommend it to all my friends, and all who desire to use for such an article.
Respectfully Yours,
MRS. E. BEARDSLEY.

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 24, 1853.
Dr. O. J. Wood—Sir: I have used nearly two bottles of your Hair Restorative, and have found its effects very satisfactory. It has entirely distroyed all dandruff from my head, and restored my hair to its original color, and which has become quite gray.

wrappers, can always be had at the office, at five cents a copy.

ultimate business. Other advertisements will be charged at regular rates.

charge of five cents per square will be made for obituary notices.

the bridegroom, and will be acknowledged in the paper.

Where Editorial notice of advertisements is requested, it will be given and charged for.

Chickens should be wanned before bringing to town to sell. It is cruel to separate the little things from their mothers before they are able to take care of themselves. Besides, it is wrong to make the purchaser pay full price for fowls he has to raise mostly himself.

FARMER'S NOTE THIS.—In a cloudy morning it is a matter of importance to the farmer to know whether it will be sunshine or showery in the afternoon. If the ants have cleared their hole nice, and piled the dirt up high, it seldom fails to bring a good day for the farmer, or even if it be cloudy till ten or eleven o'clock in the forenoon. Spiderwebs will be very numerous about the tops of the grass and grain some cloudy mornings, and fifty years observation has shown the writer of this, that little weather-guess-ers seldom fail in their predictions of a fair day.—[Southern Cultivator.

Kind Words.

What a world of deep sweetness
There is in the tone
That comes to us kindly When weary and lone;

Enwreathed with the laurel,
What rest could we find,
If we never cheered us
With words that are kind.

The floating of music,
When morning is bright,
May fall on the spirit
Like droppings of light.

For oh, they are pleasant—
The hymns of those birds—But never, no never,
So sweet as kind words.

I've sat in the shadow Of twilight's short wing,
And dreamed about angels,
And songs that they sing,

They're lovely—such visions,
By fancy combined,
But O, how much sweeter
Are words that are kind.
